Public:

Internal and external professional coaches who wish to be supervised to enhance their coaching practice (individual & team coaching) in international and/or English speaking environments.

Pre-requisites:

Have already taken coaching training with International MOZAIK or another validated school and have a regular coaching practice with individuals, teams and/or collective projects.

Be engaged to attend at least 4 consecutive sessions.

Objectives:

Reinforce your impact as a coach in international and multicultural environments

Learn about and integrate cultural differences to your coaching practice

Methodology:

Participants have the opportunity to work on their coaching-client situations. They can either be supervised as a coach, or as a client, as well as being supervised on their coach posture and positioning.

Location: International MOZAIK – 14bis Rue de Milan – 75009 PARIS

Registration details:

Registration is taken into account upon receipt of the full payment (payment shall be made before the start of the first session, or 50% at registration and the balance of 50% by the 3rd session).

Each participant agrees to respect the session dates defined at registration. No possible postponement.

These supervision hours are not considered as training. The coaching deontology specifies that supervision is part of a good practice for a coach.
